I like easy and tasty recipe books and this is one of my favorites! Soups, sandwiches and wraps are a fantastic choice when you don't feel like cooking a large meal, and especially in the summer time when you feel like something lighter. Not to mention that they provide very healthy, yet at the same time tasty and filling options. There are about 120 fantastic recipes in this book (not a good idea to peruse if you're hungry!). It is accompanied by pictures which gives you that added inspiration. There are 3 dessert wrap recipes too. The ingredients are all obtainable at your local store. The different groups in the book are: spicy soups, potato soups, chowders, chicken soups, cheesy soups, veggie soups, tomatoe soups, meat soups, fall and winter soups, misc. soups, soup croutons, chili, tuna sandwiches, ham sandwiches, cheese sandwiches, chicken and turkey sandwiches, misc sandwiches, seafood, chicken and turkey wraps, veggie wraps, tuna wraps and dessert wraps. I tried the creamy baked potato soup a few nights ago, to test the waters, which was a big hit. It turned out brilliantly and was extremely tasty and filling, and relatively healthy (the bacon is a must though!!). I can see that my family and I are going to be existing on soup, sandwiches and wraps for the next year or so, lol (I think I will have to print these out and get them laminated!). The ones I have my eye on next are mini-meatball soup and tasty tuna sandwiches (yum!). The extreme grilled cheese is after that (maybe I should have some healthy veggie soup to accompany that though!). I've never made wraps before but looking forward to trying the Tuscan Chicken wrap, and the dessert wraps too - very curious about those!
